

Argumentation and Advocacy
Annual Report 2005
American Forensic Association
Sheraton Boston Hotel
Boston, MA
November 16, 2005
Manuscripts, 10/1/03-12/31/04
	Received										45
	Revised										10
	Disposition
	Accept										7
	Accept/Minor										4
	Accept/Major										2
	Revise/Resubmit										19
	Reject										20
	Other										2
	Decisions Pending										1
Manuscripts, 1/1/05-present
	Received										26
	Revised										2
	Disposition
	Accept										1
	Accept/Minor										0
	Accept/Major										2
	Revise/Resubmit										8
	Reject										7
	Other										1
	Decisions Pending										9
								Acceptance Rate
Special Issues (2)								Regular	8 of 61	13.10%
Submissions		19						Special Issue	6 of 19	31.60%
Accepted		6						Combined	14 of 80	17.50%
Issues	No.	Date	Special	Status	Intro	Articles	Forum	Review Essays	Reviews	Page Range	Total Pages
	41#1	Summer 2004		In print		3			5	pp. 1-53	61
	41#2	Fall 2004	non-Western	In print	1	4			5	pp. 55-121	73
	41#3	Winter 2005		In print		4			3	pp. 123-189	73
	41#4	Spring 2005	TV debates	In press	1	3			5	pp. 191-
	42#1	Summer 2005		In development		2	5	tba
Plans for future issues include:
(a) an invitataional issue based on the best of the 2005 Alta conference papers;
(b) a special issue on visual argument, edited by David Birdsell and Leo Groarke; and
(c) a forum discussion of cognitive styles and argument pedagogy
Respectfully submitted,
Randy Lake
Editor											